

PHILLIP HUBER
THE HUBER MARIONETTES

PHILLIP HUBER, a world-renowned “marionette artist”, is most widely known for his work in the 3-time Academy Award nominated film BEING JOHN MALKOVICH. Phillip’s stage credits feature BUSKER ALLEY starring Tommy Tune, IT’S MAGIC starring Harry Anderson, THAT’S CHRISTMAS starring Sandy Duncan, CHISTMAS WITH FRIENDS & NABORS starring Jim Nabors, and THE ROAD TO HOLLYWOOD with Tony-winning director Walter Bobby. Phillip created a special rock opera performance piece DON’T TRUST ANYONE OVER THIRTY in collaboration with concept artist Dan Graham & video artist Tony Ousler for contemporary art museum performances in Miami, Berlin, Vienna & Minneapolis. Phillip’s television appearances include THE TONIGHT SHOW with Jay Leno, LE PLUS GRANDE CABARET DU MONDE for French TV, SHOWBIZ TODAY for CNN and numerous commercials. His nightclub performances include the LIDO in Paris, CASINO DE MONTE CARLO in Monaco (also a COMMAND PERFORMANCE for Prince Rainier), THE MAGIC CASTLE in Hollywood, RAINBOW & STARS in New York, as well as on first-class cruise ships around the world. Phillip has been a guest performer for international festivals in Norway, Spain, Portugal, France, Ireland, Brazil, Canada, Mexico, Japan, & South Korea.